

Mrs. Frank Hermes
Wygaggl Gardens
New Rochelle, N. Y.

May 9, 1945.

Dear Mr. Carter;

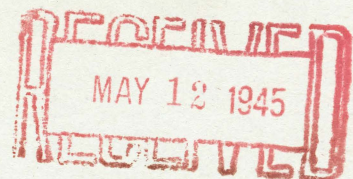

You do not know me, but Frank had so many pleasant times with you, that I feel I must write to let you know how my daughter, my son and I rejoice with you at the liberation of your son in Germany.

My daughter, who is with her husband in Washington for the duration, sent me the enclosed, and the look of such deep happiness on your face, and his has touched us very deeply.

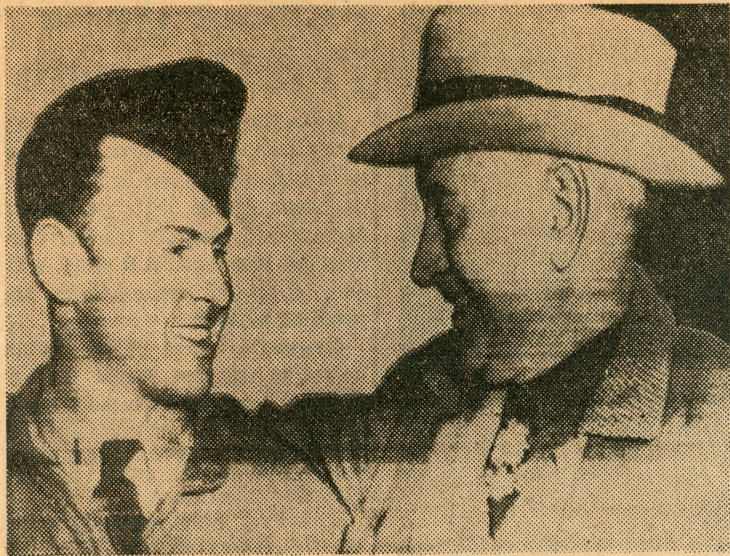

May this frightful massacre through which we are going soon be over, and may all families be reunited, and live as happily as they can, after the experience they have recently had.

Very sincerely yours,

Virginia B. Hermes

Reunion in Germany

Associated Press WIREPHOTO

PUBLISHER MEETS LIBERATED SON—Lieut. Amon G. Carter, jr. (left), a prisoner of the Germans for more than two years, is greeted by his father, publisher of the Fort Worth, Tex., Star-Telegram, as they were reunited near the Elbe River in Germany. The infantry officer was liberated from Luckenwalde prison in time to meet his father who is touring the front visiting atrocity scenes