Dear Amon:

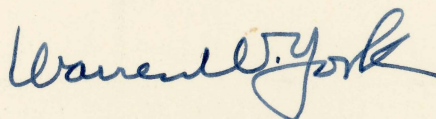

It was with considerable pleasure that I learned that you had been reunited with Amon, Jr. after his release from a German prison camp.

You will recall that I was in New York when you were making hasty preparations to leave for Paris. It also happened that I attended a Cat Cay party at Marie Travis' apartment when she received the news of Amon, Jr.'s liberation.

For want of a better address, I am directing this letter to your office, as I imagine when the excitement dies down, you and your son will return to your friends and daughter at home.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Warren W. York
