

MEMPHIS PUBLISHING COMPANY
The Commercial Appeal
MORNING - SUNDAY

Memphis Press-Scimitar
EVENING

MEMPHIS 1, TENN.

May 10, 1945

Mr. Amon G. Carter, Publisher,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

The attached clipping from today's Press-Scimitar refreshed my memory of the pleasant visit I had in your office last November with the delegation of newspaper men in connection with our tour of "Texas in the War".

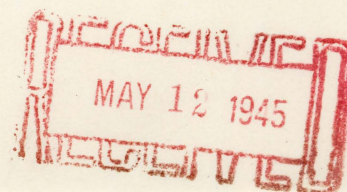

I am certainly happy that your saving of the hundreds of telegrams and letters for Amon, Jr., were not in vain, and here is hoping that he suffered no permanent injury from his long German imprisonment.

Cordially yours,

A handwritten signature in green ink, which appears to read "A. C. Bailey". The signature is fluid and cursive.

A. C. Bailey
Automobile-Aviation Editor.

ACB:W

MAY 10, 1945

HAPPY JR. AND SR.—Lt. Amon G. Carter Jr., prisoner of the Germans 26 months, is greeted by his father, Fort Worth, Texas, publisher, following his return from Germany. Young Carter was captured at Faid Pass, in Tunisia.