Mr. Anon G. Carter, Publisher,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

My dear Anon:

For the past two weeks and until today I have been kept to my bed by a rather stubborn and annoying bronchial cold. Feeling much improved a few days ago I was allowed to look over the newspapers and to my great joy I saw a news story and photograph of you meeting Anon, Jr., in Germany. I know how devoted you are to your son and I also know what a fine young man he is and how worthy he is of your devotion. I got a great kick out of you two getting together again, after such a long time during part of which you did not even know whether your son was alive.

A few days ago when I wrote you a little note to thank you for the tasty Shady Oaks pecans, I failed to tell you how much Mrs. Branch appreciates the artistic bucket in which they came. She asks me to especially thank you for it.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Harllee Branch

Harllee Branch.
