F. A. SHORT, Vice President and General Manager.

HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA

June 10th 1945.

My Dear Anon: While you were abroad the Hand sent me a fine ^{bucket} of pecans. I was down in Charleston W. Va. when they came, and when I returned from Charleston I came back here for the summer, but I hesitated long enough to enjoy some pecans and I want you and him to know I am grateful.

A Comdr. in the Navy has my house rented in Gallipoli. He has been transferred and I will get into the house June 15th. In the meantime I am here at this hotel and go back and forth. You must know how happy I am ^{to} gether with all your friends that you found Anon. You must want just to sit and look at him. How is Ruth's love life?

Thanked again for your kindness and generosity and your fine friendship.
Best always to you and yours and
my affectionate regards
