

PHOTO RELEASE

(FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE)

Public Relations Office,
Army Ground and Service Forces
Redistribution Station,
Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Tex.-----Lt. Amon G. Carter, Jr. (lower right) and three Texas officers with whom he was held captive in German prisoner of war camps. Top, from left: 2nd Lt. G. B. Beasley, Ennis, 9th Infantry Division veteran, who was a prisoner for 26 months; 1st Lt. Robert T. Henry, Jr., Fort Worth, 36th Infantry Division, captive 15 months; lower left: 1st Lt. J. T. Jones, Houston, 1st Armored Division, captive 26 months. Lt. Jones is the nephew of Jessie Jones, former U. S. Secretary of Commerce. Lt. Carter, son of Amon G. Carter, owner and publisher of the Fort Worth (Tex.) Star-Telegram, was a forward observer with the 1st Armored Division; he was captive 29 months. The group pictured is awaiting reassignment at the Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

--U. S. Army Signal Corps Photo