East of the Elbe with the Russian Armies, May 2 (A. P.).—A released American prisoner of war from Luckenwalde reported today that a Fort Worth publisher's son, Lieut. Amon G. Carter, was alive and well and had been liberated by the Russian advance.

"Carter was in charge of distributing Red Cross parcels and when I saw him last yesterday he was in good shape and was staying in the Luckenwalde camp in compliance with the senior American officer's order," said Lieut. Henry N. Crellin, Springfield, Ohio, who was captured in Metz October from the Fifth Division.
