EAST OF THE ELBE WITH THE RUSSIAN ARMIES, (AP)—
Three released American prisoners of war from Luckenwalde reported Wednesday that a Fort Worth publisher's son, Lt. Amon G. Carter, was alive and well and had been liberated by the Russian advance.

"Carter was in charge of distributing Red Cross parcels, and was staying in the Luckenwalde camp in compliance with the senior American officer's order that prisoners stay there until arrangements are made for them," said Lt. Henry N. Crellin, Springfield, Ohio.
