

Amon Carter Jr. Reported Safe, Freed by Reds

EAST OF THE ELBE WITH THE RUSSIAN ARMIES, May 2 (A). — Three released American prisoners of war from Luckenwalde reported Wednesday that Amon G. Carter Jr., son of the Fort Worth publisher, was alive and well and had been liberated by the Russian advance.

"Carter was in charge of distributing Red Cross parcels and when I saw him last yesterday he was in good shape and was staying in the Luckenwalde camp in compliance with the senior American officer's order that prisoners stay there until arrangements are made for them," said Lt. Henry N. Crellin, Springfield, Ohio.

Crellin was captured in Metz last October from the 5th Division. Harvey, a Flying Fortress navigator, was shot down over Berlin last June. And Dalofie was captured from the 103rd Division in December.
