"We have visited and spent considerable time investigating prison camps at Buchenwald and Dachau.
We have interviewed recently freed political prisoners, slave laborers and civilians of many nationalities. political prisoners, slave laborers and civilians of many nationalities. We have studied a great mass of documents covering the German occupation of France which contained photographic evidence and testimony taken in many places and painstakingly authenticated with the sworn statements of witnesses and victims.

"The conclusion is inescapable that the Nazis had a master plan for their political prison camps. That plan was based upon a policy of calculated and organized brutality. The evidence we have seen is not a mere assembling of local or unassociated incidents. It is convincing proof that brutality was the basic Nazi system and method.

BASIC BRUTALITY SAME "This brutality took different forms in different places and with different groups. The basic pattern varied little. "Actual Nazi methods ran the "Actual Nazi methods ran the gamut from deliberate starvation and routine beatings to sadistic tortures too horrible and too perverted to be publicly described. Murder was a commonplace.
