

SAM W. BECKER JEWELRY CO.

FINE
JEWELRY

SINCE 1886

807 MAIN STREET
HOUSTON 2, TEXAS

December 21, 1943.

Mr. Amon Carter, Sr.,
Ft. Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

May I at this time take this opportunity to write and thank you in behalf of my mother and dad, as well as myself, for the telephone call last evening in reference to our little brother, 1st Lt. Teddy Roggen.

Needless, to say we do so much appreciate your interest and thoughtfulness, and, you, probably like the rest of us; are always so anxiously awaiting news from our loved ones.

In a letter received from my brother last week; and which incidently, was our first; inasmuch as he was captured on the 14th of September at the Battle of Salerno, he mentioned that he was with Amon Carter, Jr., and that all was well.

Please accept our sincere thanks and with compliments of the season,
I am

Yours very truly,

Minnie Roggen
Minnie Roggen

mr

