Mr. Amon G. Carter, Publisher,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

Referring to previous correspondence, our friends here who have launched a movement to build a City Club, somewhat along the lines of your splendid achievement in Fort Worth, are planning a big banquet which will take the form of a dinner-dance, and have selected February 5 as a tentative date.

They are exceedingly anxious to have you here as their special guest of honor, and have given me the pleasure of extending the invitation. They are counting so much upon your presence that if the date suggested is not satisfactory they would like to change it to suit your convenience. I have told them that as busy as you are I felt that you probably would not care to give them a hard and fast acceptance just at this time, but that you might indicate whether the date suggested would fit in with your present plans.

If you can see your way clear to accept the invitation I cannot help but feel that your counsel and advice will not only be most helpful to our friends, but serve to further promote the growing bond of good feeling between North and South Texas.

With warmest regards, and with the Season's greetings, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Roy Miller
