Fort Worth, Texas,
February 9, 1937.

Honorable James A. Farley,
Postmaster General,
Washington, D.C.

I understand you are to dedicate the Post Office in Waco March Eighth. Why not come by Fort Worth? Together with Mr. Buck and some of your friends we will drive you to Hillsboro, join the crowd there and on to Waco and fetch you back to Fort Worth where you can make direct connections for Washington STOP In other words we are anxious to have you come through Fort Worth for a little visit which we can make official or just have a private meal for you at Shady Oak Farm. Do the best you can to figure out something for us. Best regards.
