JAMES A. FARLEY
CHAIRMAN

December 31, 1937.

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

Thanks for your wire of the twenty-eighth. I will show your letter to the Secretary of the Treasury.

I hope 1938 will be so good, Amon, that you will be able to pay more income taxes to the Government than ever before. I know that would please you immensely.

Bess and the children join me in extending very best wishes to you. They are doing a good job on the smoked turkey, the pecans, and everything else that came our way. The other evening when I went to the ice-box for a bite to eat, my eyes fell on your smoked turkey and I went to work immediately. It tasted all right then, but the next morning it wasn't so hot. It leads me to believe that we are crazy to eat before going to bed, but everyone seems to have the habit.

Seriously, Amon, we are very grateful to you for your courtesies.

Sincerely yours,

RECEIVED
