

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL

September 12, 1939.

Mr. Amon G. Carter
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

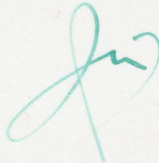

It is about time you came to Washington and had a real discussion on national and world problems. In about twenty minutes, you, George Marshall and I could really settle everything.

I haven't seen you since you lost your tonsils and I want to see whether you are still as good as ever. It has been reported you are slipping but I want to see for myself and not take any reports from the rumor factory.

I had a great trip abroad and enjoyed it immensely, but I am glad to be home.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
