JAMES A. FARLEY
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

July 12, 1941.

ADDRESS REPLY TO
515 MADISON AVENUE
NEW YORK, N.Y.

Dear Amon:

I shall never be able to tell you, adequately, how grateful I am for your efforts to make my recent visit to Texas so pleasant, and as for Jimmy, all we have heard from him is how anxious he is to go back there.

When we reached home on July 2nd, Jimmy waltzed into his mother with his cowboy hat on, the boots, shirt and gun, and the first thing he told her was that he got in the moving pictures at Shady Oaks Ranch and he would have to watch for the showing of "Texas March of Time", to see himself in the movies. Texas hospitality was a revelation to him and he will never forget his first trip to your State. Bess thought that he had grown a couple of inches while he was away, not realizing, of course, that it was his high-heeled boots.

The Senatorial race surely proves the old adage, that an election is never won until the votes are all counted. Burris thought sure he had won his Fifty Dollars bet with Charlie Lupton. It was certainly a close one, and I suppose that you are happy in the knowledge that O'Daniel is on his way to Washington and at last will be out of the State picture.

I had a great visit with Jack Garner; he was in rare form. I thought that both he and Mrs. Garner looked particularly well and they certainly appear to be very happy to be at home in Uvalde again.

I see where our friend Moffet got married again during our absence.

If you are coming this way, let me know so that we can arrange for a real visit together.

I shall never forget your graciousness, and your generosity to my boy and to me, on this trip, Amon, and we brought away memories which we shall always hold dear.

With deep appreciation, and with very kindest regards and best wishes from Bess, Jimmy and myself,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Amon G. Carter,
The Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.
