Dear Amon:-

I want you to know that if I do not always write you when I receive your editorials that I read most all of them, and that if time does not permit me to do so when I receive them, I set them aside for what I used to tell Austin Latimer in the Post Office Department would be "street car reading", and eventually I caught up with all of them.

I had hoped that some of these days you would drop in and see me, and don't wait until after we beat Dewey before you do it. Now that you have renominated Senator O'Daniel, who will be elected without difficulty, possibly some of the wealthy Texans, who have plenty of money in the bank, would be willing to help the Democrats in this State to keep Democratic control in Albany, if by mentioning the fact that you know Farley, and any help which comes our way will be deeply appreciated.

Seriously, Amon, I do wish you would drop in some time when you are in New York.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Amon Carter,
