Dear Amon:

Just a line to acknowledge the tear sheet in which appears the editorial "Hard Headed De Valera". I also noted Coffman's cartoon on the same page. That is one thing you and I can't get to arguing about, the Irish question. I read your editorial and I am sure you won't misunderstand me when I say "no comment". Maybe we can have a quite little talk some day on that subject, but we won't argue. When are you coming this way again? Let me know so that we can get together for a chat. I assume you will be here at the newspaper gathering in April.

With kind regards and all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

JAF/r
