NEW YORK

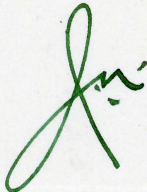

April 21st, 1944.

Dear Amon:

Thanks for your editorials in the April 5th issues of the morning and evening Fort Worth Star Telegram. I read them all with interest.

It is about time you and I got together and straightened out our program. Maybe we could bring George Marshall of laundry and football fame into it, and he might be helpful to us.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth,
Texas.
