

JAMES A. FARLEY
NEW YORK

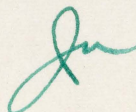

May 10, 1945.

Dear Bob:

Just a line to tell you that the attached picture from The Philadelphia Inquirer of May 6th, made me very happy. It is apparent that Amon and the boy are a pretty happy pair - and with good reason.

With warm regards to you,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Robert Hicks,
The Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

FATHER AND SON REUNITED IN GERMANY AFTER 2 YEARS

Lieutenant Amon G. Carter, Jr., a prisoner of the Germans for more than two years, is greeted by his father, publisher of the Fort Worth, Texas, Star-Telegram, as they were reunited near the Elbe River. The infantry officer was liberated from Luckenwalde prison in time to meet his father, who was touring the scenes of atrocities.

Editors Report Proof of Atrocities

PARIS, May 5 (A. P.).—A commission of American newspaper editors is being sent to Germany to investigate reports of atrocities in different places and with differ-
