James Farley In Fort Worth On Brief Visit

James A. Farley of New York arrived in Fort Worth Thursday night from Mexico City, and is staying at the Fort Worth Club as the guest of Amon Carter.

Farley, chairman of the board of Coca-Cola Export Corporation, and an officer in a number of domestic subsidiaries of the Coca-Cola Company, has been attending a convention of the Coca-Cola Company in Mexico City. He is accompanied by his son, Jim, 17.

The former postmaster general and Democratic national chairman will go to Dallas Friday on business, and also plans to spend part of the day here visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lupton of River Crest. He will leave for New York early Friday morning.

Farley was met at the airport Thursday night by Miss Ruth Carter and Miss Gloria Lupton.

DROLL, BUT DROLL IS IN A DITHER

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 13 (INS).—When George Droll, Wichita caterer, entertained members of the regional price and rationing board at a "swiss steak" banquet last week, everybody agreed it was a "swell spread."

But Thursday, Droll received from the board a letter which, instead of containing a check for his services, was a summons to appear and explain prices he charged for the main course at the dinner.

Droll declared he had discussed prices with board members before the banquet, but that didn't make him feel any better.

Billy the 10th Will Arrive in Capital Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP).—Billy the 10th, new goat mascot of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, is due in Washington at 10 a. m. Friday aboard the Pennsylvania Railroad's Spirit of St. Louis.

The 75-pound pedigree Angora selected by Texas Governor Stevenson from a farm near Fredericksburg, home of Adm. Chester Nimitz, was started on his trip in custody of Constable Joe Luther of Dallas.

Plans for the mascot's reception are in the hands of naval academy officials.
