Dear Miss Wallace:

In reply to your letter of March 28, may I advise that Mr. Henry D. Young's wife, who lives at the Westbrook Hotel in Fort Worth, Texas, is his closest survivor.

They had no children and his only brother, Judge Bruce Young, died of a heart attack only two weeks preceding Mr. Henry Young's death. Both of these gentlemen were prominent citizens of Fort Worth and its civic life and their deaths have been quite a shock. However, I know that Mr. Farley was personally acquainted with Mr. Young.

Yours very truly,

Secretary to A. G. Carter
