AMON G. CARTER, PRESIDENT

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

February 7, 1945.

To the Family of Lt. Leo V. Thieme,
109 Mountain Avenue,
El Paso, Texas.

Dear Folks:

Enclosed, you will find a photostatic copy of a card dated November 17th, 1944 received this morning from my son, Amon G. Carter, Jr., in which he advises that Lt. Leo V. Thieme has arrived at that prisoner of war camp and that he was captured October 29th.

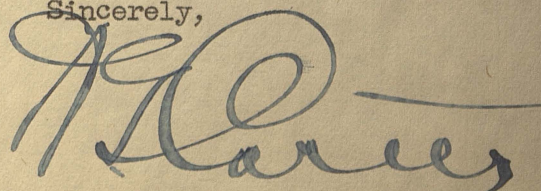

While, I am sure you have already had direct information, I thought you would be interested in this additional information so I am taking the liberty of sending it along. Incidentally, Amon Jr. has been a prisoner of war for two years this month.

We have been advised that the American officers in Oflag 64, formerly located at Schubin in the Polish Corridor about 100 miles south of Danzig, have been moved to Stalag No. 3-A about thirty miles south of Berlin in Luckenwalde, Germany. Mrs. Minor in Buffalo, N.Y., has a friend who received a letter from her son, interned in Oflag 64, dated January 18th. It seems almost incredible that a letter could arrive in New York in fifteen days time; however, it is possible.

Mail and next-of-kin parcels should continue to be addressed to Oflag 64, Germany, as the camp still maintains its identity even though it has been moved.

If I get any additional news or information, I shall be glad to send it to you.

Sincerely,

AGC:KD
