

The Chase National Bank

OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

NEW YORK, U. S. A.

London, E. C. 3

6 Lombard Street

13th July 1943

JOHN M. WALLACE
VICE PRESIDENT
TELEPHONE MANSION HOUSE 3240
TELEGRAMS: CHASEBANK, LONDON

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Club,
Fort Worth,
Texas, U.S.A.

My dear Mr. Carter,

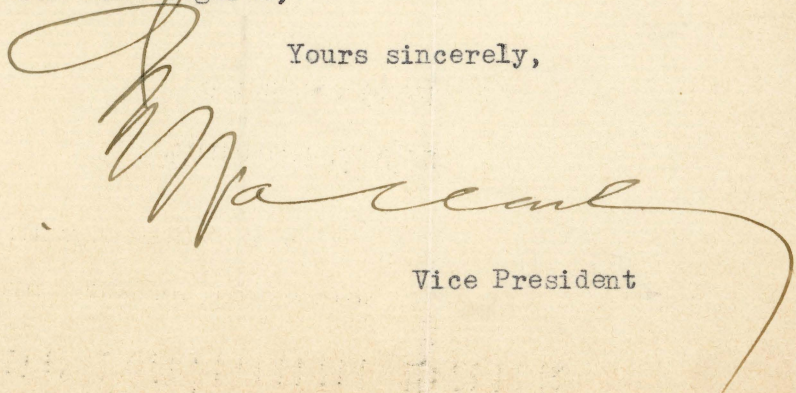

I should have written you some time ago to convey my deep sympathy with you in the news which reached me that your son had been taken a prisoner. No-one will feel this more than the young man himself and I can only hope that he is in comfortable quarters and that the end of the war may not be too long delayed so that you can be reunited with him.

I was most interested to receive a copy of the Consolidated Balance Sheet of the Fort Worth Club over whose affairs you preside so gracefully. I am sure it must be a great privilege to be a member of such a Club and I must tell you that in the course of long experience I cannot recall seeing the balance sheet of any club of such a prosperous and affluent nature. If I am still able to travel after the war I hope to call and visit you and perhaps you will be kind enough to show me the amenities of the Club and let me see how you do things over there.

Your many friends join me in extending to you our best wishes for your continued health and prosperity,

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Vice President