

one of these cards are all
but I thought it was real cute so am sending it to The dealer he is talking about
were punch boards

Mengus, Tex
April 30, 1942

Mr. Amon G. Carter
H. Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

I am sure you don't know me, but we just recently sold our Drug store on Camp Bowie Blvd. and "Little Amon" (my pet name for him) was one of our best friends. I believe he knew him as well as anyone, and I would say he is one of the finest young men I have ever known. He used to tell us when he was in school, that he would go by too.

see you and then rush on to the drug store to see the gang.

You have my deepest sympathy as we know what a wonderful boy he is. And I still feel that he will return safely.

I shall never forget on his 21st birthday, he come down to the store to show me what you gave him.
The check for $1,000, his face was just beaming. He told me he had the best Dad
in the world.

We have heard from him every since he entered the Army. I am enclosing next to the last card we had from him I have misplaced the last one which was dated Feb 2.

Again let me say that I think he is a wonderful boy and we must hope and pray for his safe return.

Mr. Carter if you have heard anything from him I would surely appreciate it if you would let me know, as you have no idea how much Ben and I have worried about him.

With deepest sympathy
Mrs. Ben C. Coker
Mungus, Tex

Please return
the card -
Rt 1

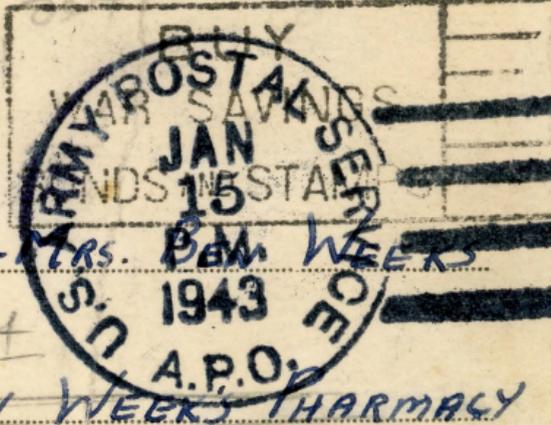

CARTE POSTALE FREE

134 - CONTEUR ARABE
Cet Arabe doit débiter
Son conte avec grande éloquence.
Car on a l'air de l'écouter
Dans un religieux silence.

Pierre Aguélant

LT. AMON CARTER JR
91ST FIELD ARTILLERY
A.P.O. 251
NEW YORK, N.Y.

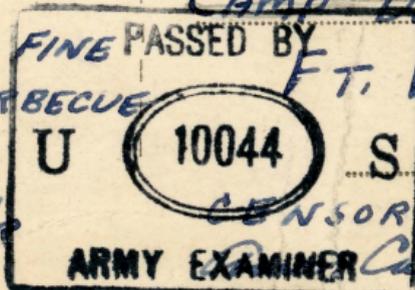

JAN 13, 1943
AFRICA.

HELLO,

AM GETTING ALONG FINE
BUT REALLY MISS THE BARBECUE AND GOOD DEALS.

Amon Jr

Camp Bowie Blvd
FT. WORTH, TEXAS.

Carter Jr.
LT. U.S. ARMY.