Mr. Amon Carter, Sr.
Fort Worth Star Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

Up to today I have not had a chance to thank you for your kindness and courtesies shown to me and my daughter during our visit to Fort Worth. That day will always be remembered by me as one of the outstanding days in my life.

There is no doubt that things are getting very "hot" over there and I believe our boys are in it now. We are in receipt of a letter from Sidney written on the 15th and he more or less indicates that they are going into it. He also advised us that there probably won't be a chance for him to write us for quite a while. So if you don't hear from your son you will know the reason why.

I also read with a great deal of interest copy of the telegram you sent to Amon Junior at Fort Knox. I feel that the telegram should be published as it is a wonderful tribute to your only son.

Sincerely yours,

B. A. Wiedermann,
