

Saturday.

Dear Mr. Carter:

It was so thoughtful of you to have Mrs. Deakin call me about the mail. I intended calling for you that morning but was waiting until I thought you were at the office. I feel assured that our boys are all right; the newspapers have been encouraging the last few days, and I know they can take care of themselves. Mrs. Brown called me Thursday night, her husband is the dental officer for the 91st F. I. and he's been awarded something for bravery & heroism. She said it was a long article in the paper about all he'd done. As I know the boys are really in it, but we do have the upper
