

Tuesday.

Dear Mr. Cauter:

It was so good of Mrs. Deakin to let me know how Amos, Jr. is. You and he are even in my thoughts, and altho' I write seldom, I want you to know that you are dear to me as always.

Since you'll be away soon, I want you to know I'll be thinking of you on December 11th - hoping you are having a nice birthday, and I pray that before the next birthday rolls around, you can have Amos, Jr. with you. And, too, on December 23rd - Amos's birthday - Every day is hard, but special days are more difficult, I know.

you don't know whether you "compare notes" with others in prison camps - but Sidney's dear friend ^{St.} Ken Goddard has been a prisoner since Ammon Jr. was - in Oflag 64 now, and his mother just wrote me about him. She corresponds with Mrs. Johnny Waters, and it helps a bit. Ken's mother's name & address - Mrs. Roscoe H.
Goddard, 120 Newton Ave.,
Worcester, 5, Mass.

Extend my best wishes to Mrs. Deakins - it was good of her to write.

By the way, Pinky Talbot is mentioned in Ernie Pyle's new book "Brave Men".

Keep well - It's going to be a while yet before this is all over in Europe, but we can do it, and I know Ammon Jr. is fine - Lovingly, Jude
