Mr. Amon G. Carter,

Dear Amon:

I have your letter with reference to the desire of yourself and other friends in Texas to commission Seymour Stone to paint my portrait to be hung in the Texas Memorial Museum.

It looks like now we are going to get away from here for a while about the last of July or the first of August.

Any time I am going to be here two or three weeks, I will be glad to sit for Mr. Stone.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
