Fort Worth, Texas,
January 7, 1943.

Honorable Sam Rayburn,
Speaker of the House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sam: Congratulations on your reelection as Speaker of the House of Representatives. No greater honor could befall any man in America than to have the distinction of being elected to this most important position for three consecutive times. My hat's off to you and I consider the citizenship of this great country of ours indeed fortunate in having you on the firing line PERIOD As for the fifty first birthday, you have my congratulations. No doubt there are many charming women throughout the country who would like to share this glory with you but still I guess it is hard to teach an old "Hoss" new tricks unless the "Hoss" is interested. So to you I send my sweet scented compliments and best wishes. Sincerely.

Amon Carter
