

February 2, 1943.

Honorable Sam Rayburn,
Speaker of the House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Rayburn:

Although, Mr. Carter realizes that you have already seen the Star-Telegram's Sunday rotogravure section, he asked me to send you a complete paper and a half dozen extra copies of the rotogravure section thinking that maybe some of the boys in your office might want to press one of the pictures out and have it framed.

With best wishes, I am

Yours very truly,

Secy. to A. G. Carter.
