Dear Amon:

Thank you for your letter and the information contained therein and also for copy of letter written to you by Lieutenant Colonel Morrow Krum.

What little I did to help get the turkeys over was no trouble at all and you should never say you are sorry for asking me to do anything because a friend like you deserves all the time and attention that is necessary.

I am very much interested in the editorial you inclosed.

With all good wishes to you at all times, I am

Sincerely yours,
