

LOUISVILLE COOPERAGE COMPANY

INCORPORATED

MANUFACTURERS OF

TIGHT BARREL STAVES, CIRCLED HEADING
DOWEL PINS, BARRELS AND KEGS

MONROE, LOUISIANA

FINISHING PLANTS
MONROE, LA.
BONITA, LA.
WINNFIELD, LA.
ALEXANDRIA, LA.
R. C. WHITE,
VICE PRESIDENT

MILLS
LOUISIANA
ARKANSAS
MISSISSIPPI

November 2, 1944

Mrs. K. Deakins,
Secy. to Amon Carter
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mrs. Deakins:

As per your request of the 31st ult., we are returning copy of Amon, Jr.'s letter. Certainly thank you for sending it to us.

Also enjoyed the article about Colonel Drake, and particularly what he had to say about the Red Cross. I had a letter from my son about the Red Cross. I didn't send you a copy because I thought he was wrong, but, evidently, he was right. We will still have to support the Red Cross, however, if my son's letter was ever made public in Monroe, it would certainly hurt their drive. I haven't shown the letter to anyone except the head of the Red Cross in this city.

With kindest regards, we are

Yours truly,

R. C. White

RCW:C
Encl.

COPY

September 3, 1944

Dear Dad:

The theatre just put on another musical show. Very good. We are having "George Washington Slept Here" in a few days and also "Spring Parade" with Deanna Durbin. We're looking forward to it.

It's getting quite cool here, but that's explainable as this place is as far north as the Hudson Bay. The fellows that spent the last winter here say it's terrificly cold.

Still reading. If there weren't books here, one would go nuts. We have 4,000 books so I've got plenty to read as yet. There are two fellows here from Fred Culpepper's outfit, but they don't know what happened to him.

This life is pretty monotonous. Wish I were still fighting.

Love,

R. C.