

Tuesday A. M.

Dear Mrs. Deakins:

The enclosed clipping was in this morning's Kansas City Times - it might have appeared in your paper. Sidney says that Lt. Frank H. Colley was captured at the same time Amos, Jr. was. In the event that these men might return soon, it would be a definite recent contact for you.

I don't know whether you've heard from Amos, Jr. from the new camp. The same paper carried the information about the men's new location, which we were anxious to know - I hope the Reds can liberate all the men soon.

Amos, Jr. would never try to escape, I know - but a similar neglect of guard duty - as was the case here could happen. Mrs. Deakins, I have complete faith that all is well with

Amon, Jr. - I just truly feel that way.

You're very busy - as always - and I don't expect a letter from you. All I want is a card telling me when Amon's latest letter was written. Somehow - I have a feeling that maybe he's not in that camp but could also be in friendly hands. (Wishful thinking).

Remember me to Mr. Deakin - and my very best wishes to Mr.
Carter - my thoughts are with you as always.

Sincerely,

Jane
