

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company,
President's Office
NEW YORK CITY

Mr. Amon G. Carter, President,

Fort Worth Star-Telegram,

Fort Worth,

Texas.

a new people,
n the

THE INQUIRING PHOTOGRAPHER

Every Day He Asks a Question and Pictures Those Questioned

The News will pay $5 for question submitted and his column. Today's to Arthur Keller,
St., Weehawken,

mq.
wh exercised Potential cane
E.
4th St.
ERS.

son, Townsend
ve., Bronx,
supervisor:
"Certainly. The Vice Presidential candidate is too much of a political football. He is generally selected to balance a ticket and to help the party
carry his own
try. The office
that of Presi-

Monitor St.,

"Said the little white hen to the little brown rooster: 'You don't come around as often as you uster.'"

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

letter. We will withhold both an

LACKAWANNA RAILROAD

Date. November 2-1932

The attached papers regarding.....

Steel Industry

Are referred

To Mr. Cole Louisville Ky

By Mr. Davis

For the purpose indicated by check

.....For recommendation.

.....Please return with more details.

.....To note and return.

.....Please give this the necessary attention.

.....To make proper reply.

.....Please prepare reply for my signature.

.....For approval as to form.

.....To attest.

.....Please discuss.

.....Noted and returned for your file.

Mr. Davis: noted. The analogy is good, but perhaps the reasons are different.
11/4/32 WRL

Blue ink stamp: New Union Photo Return 11-11-32

FWC

✓ 11/5

~~RBB~~

Notes

11/13

~~Jag~~

Notes

11/9/32

EMS

11/10/32

20 pgs note in town
reference to

Dear Amos Splendid
JM 11/4
4

Gives 'Em Ten-Gallon Hats as Gifts

Mr. Davis

*Newark Ledger
Nov. 3, 1932*

Amon Carter (rear row, right), publisher of the Fort Worth, Texas, Star-Telegram, yesterday presented Democratic leaders with ten-gallon hats. Left to right, front), James Farley, Bernard Baruch, Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, Will Rogers; (back row), Edward Flynn, New York Secretary of State, and Carter. (AP)