Dear Will:

Mr. Jack M. Loffland, one of my close personal friends in Fort Worth, has a step-son, 27 years old by the name of O. L. Carroll, who is now living at the YMCA, 1553 N. Hudson, Hollywood, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Loffland are very anxious to secure some kind of a position for this young man. While I realize you are snowed under with hundreds of requests, I would personally appreciate it very much if you could assist this young man in some way find a position in some of the studios or any place, as far as that is concerned. Notwithstanding your many requests, I hope you will make an exception of this one and try and do something for the boy.

Assuring you of my thanks and appreciation,
