Dear Will:

The enclosed letters have been received from General Ballow, Adjutant General of Tennessee, and Jimmie Stahlman, President of the Nashville Banner, extending you an invitation to come to Nashville for the annual dinner in honor of their Governor February 22nd, 1934.

I am writing to them as per the enclosed copy, telling them I will do my best which will be of no particular benefit as I realize how busy you are.

With best wishes, I remain

Sincerely,
