Form 21

Fort Worth, Texas,
January 18, 1944.

Mr. Will Rogers,
Beverly Hills, Calif.

Upkeep on movie stars prohibitive. Horses so far undependable. Ranch of no interest. Unable to pay taxes on my own. Pacific Ocean unnecessary on account of Lake Worth which supplies Dallas with water when we pull the string. Summing everything up on your proposition the only real bargain is the car that is provided it is full of gas, has at least one extra tire and a few cold patches otherwise I might have to call on TIME to supply me with a special correspondents car. In any event if I donot receive a better proposition I will gladly accept yours STOP Willy Post spent the night in Ten-G at The Fort Worth Club and we drank to your health at Shady Oaks STOP How about my letter on the contribution for The President's Birthday Ball. We are trying hard to lead the State by raising twenty-five thousand dollars. A subscription from you would help do the trick.

Amon G. Carter
