Mr. Will Rogers,
Beverly Hills, Calif.

Dear Will:

At the time I visited your shack in Santa Monica, I recall some conversation about some Democratic measuring glasses which I was supposed to have sent you a long time ago. You seldom acknowledge anything and, therefore, I had no way of knowing you had not received the glasses. They left here September 12, 1929 as you will note from the enclosed express receipt. They were evidently delivered to either Clara Bow, Ben Turpin, Joe Schenck or Joe Toblitzky. In any event, I am making good and sending you a half dozen of these glasses, under separate cover. They can be used for soup, beans, beer or high-balls.

By the way, while I am on the subject, I am having a special saddle made for you. I am sure Mrs. Rogers feels lonesome in the house without a saddle.

I am leaving here Sunday for New York to attend the Publishers Convention and I want to put you on notice now that you are billed for the next convention.

Hoping you are all well and happy and with best wishes, I remain

Sincerely,

AGC.KD
