

Dear Mr. Carter:

Knowing, as I do from my own experience, that there is little one can say to make your grief any the less, yet I cannot refrain from offering my sincerest sympathy over the loss of your dear loved friend, and, with it, the hope that Time which helps all things will make this easier to bear. Believe me,

Yours sincerely,
Willabeth Floyd

August 14, 1935
Abilene, Texas

RECEIVED

AUG 20 1935