Dear Sir,

Please publish this poem, which I have just written, as a tribute to the late Will Rogers from one of his countless many unknown friends

Most Respectfully Yours,
Sara Louise Smith

Will Rogers

If ever a mortal loved his fellow-man,
Or had the perfect gift to understand,
And had a heart of purest gold,
Or helped the weak, the young, the old
Or saw the human side
To full extent With a wit so quick and yet so kindly meant

It was our greatest humorist
And our nation's friend Whose ~~useful~~ life has been A blessing unto the end.
