

Burrelle's
EST. 1888

90

PRESS CLIPPING BUREAU
NEW YORK

NASHVILLE TENN. TENNESSEAN
AUGUST 18, 1935

Texas Publisher Flies
Through Here on Way to Meet Rogers, Post Bodies

On his way to Seattle, to be present when the bodies of Will Rogers and Wiley Post arrive Monday, Amon G. Carter publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram stopped at Sky Harbor yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Carter will go to Los Angeles, reaching there this morning, and will take a plane from there to Seattle. He left Washington yesterday aboard an American Airlines ship.

He said he would accompany the bodies from Seattle to Los Angeles, according to present plans. While at Sky Harbor Mr. Carter spoke of visiting Rogers and his family recently, and that he talked with the humorist two weeks before the latter started on his Alaskan trip.