JOLIET. ET. ILL., HERALD N. Monday, August 19, 1935 NEWS

Bodies of Rogers and Post Will Arrive Today

By Associated Press Seattle, Aug. 19.—The curtains of s passenger tabin closely drawn, ilot Joe Crosson's plane bearing its passenger cabin Pilot Joe Crosson's C the bodies of Will Rogers and Wiley Post south from their tragic air 00 Post south from their tragic air crash deaths in Alaska arrived here at 11:15 a. m., CST. from Vancouver, B. C.

t

S

t

C

F

The plane landed at Boeing field, The plane lange at the south-the municipal airport, in the south-ern part of the city. Without stopern part of the city. Without stop-ping his potor after the plane bad come to a halt, Pilot Crosson taxied it into a United Ail Lines hangar S TER at the side of the field E h sur The hangar angar was completely by state patrolmen, ad marine corps reser rounded city reservists. police and A crowd of persons, some of whom had remained at the S emained at the were at the field. airport night,

ing

oal

ΓE

ouse Jut RA"

noes

ghed cer-

sure

en-

been

ount

ob-

the ited here it the ved ake

siou

rice

in-

the

al-

on vho

to

inuld

rend

ier

re-

vere

im-

in-

nts

var of

20-

se

15.

he

as

ps

ma.

a.

5.

Funeral Thursday. the hangar, Col. Clarence Pacific coast manager of Within Young, Pacific manager of an Airways. Fort Worth, Tex., Fort Worth, Tex., Fort Worth, Tex., Forther and close friend were among Pan-American Carter, of sonal representative and close of the Rogers family, were group awaiting the plane's arthe rival rival. Colonel Young had a ship flown here from San Francisco to receive the bodies on arrival.

n arun transfer, Rogen to Los Angeles, where held Thurs-After the transfer, Rogers' body will be taken to Los Angeles, where funeral services will be held Thurs-day in the Wee Kirk o' the Heather. But Young declined to say where in Los Angeles or vicinity the ship Rogers' body angeles or vicinity land with its tragic her would he disclo would burden.

Neither he disclose pla of Post's body where the stoo plans for transportation to Oklahoma City, where the sto Oklahoma flier will be buried. forts likely will be made to av large towns and well known a ports, to prevent the gathering throats stocky Ef avoid air of throngs.

throngs. Crosson Silent. Whether Crosson, intimate friend of Post and strong admirer of Rog-ers, will continue his journey with the bodieş was not known. He may return to Fairbanks, from which central Alaskan town he winged to Point Barrow a few hours after Post's ship fell crushing its cele-brated pilot and passenger. Here the Sand Point naval air station was ready to furnish an es-cort of planes to accompany the aerial hearse southward. The apparent effort to achieve a quiet, unheralded last flight, how-ever, left this official government

hes the na

quiet, unheralded last flight, h ever, left this official governm mark of respect also undecided. Crosson had little to say to government

Crosson had littl terviewers at Vanc only that northern little to say to Vancouver. He in said s at Vancouver. He said t northern Alaska was grief and that he knew no more stricken, about the had been the cause of t een told—this crash the than had been told—this was that the motor had misfired as the plane was taking off from a small river and the ship fell 50 feet into the shallow water.

over mon-The value of the constraints of

ARRANGE FOR RITES

By Associated Press Hollywood, Aug. 19. - Arrangented ments for two, and possibly three ceremonies were being made today as the body of Will Rogers was ons, hey

e

Q

S J ir

al

S

lir

St

pc

Ir

of

wł

ab 60

to

bo

shi

we

the

fro

qua

cas

Th ha

ar

7

hey the brought back to California from the aerial voyage he said would end, for him, "just somewhere." Private services, with only the family in attendance, will be held hat Thursday afternoon at Forest Lawn A Memorial cemetery. At the same time, one and perhaps two other a tributes, will be paid the memory of pacethe actor-humorist who lost his life ne, in an Alaskan air crash which also en- resulted in the death of Wiley Post, also enbnthe noted pilot A public ce hed ilot. ceremony in the vast public Hollywood bowl will be held. ved it is believed, plans now being f bit- mulated for a living memorial re- the homely philosopher will be d for to re-the homely philosopher will be dis-the closed, A committee composed of sent Mary Pickford, Mayor Edward Spence of Beverly Hills, Beverly Hills civic off ills, and other officials, has her- Beverly Hills civic officials, has the been conferring on the type of mehas morial to be arranged. Will Lie in Crypt. of

Rogers' Cherokee Indian blood, of which, friends said, he was very proud, led to plans for another cer-emony. A delegation of Cherokees, headed by Clarence Davis, said toary day they will ask Mrs. Rogers' permission to perform their own tribal rites. "We have always considered him one of our people," Davis said. "We like to think it was his Cherokee like to think it was his Cherokee blood that made him great and unafraid."

After the private services the co-nedian's body will be interred in a median's body will be interred in a crypt at Forest Lawn—not far from those of two of his closest friends of life, Marie Dressler and Florenz Ziegfeld, theatrical producer. Later, it was understood, it will be removunderstood, it will be Rogers' home state, (it was underst ed to Rogers' Oklaho-