Humorist's Friend Discloses Donations of Thousands of Dollars

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher and an intimate friend of Will Rogers for 20 years, disclosed Thursday that the humorist-actor's gifts to two favorite organizations amounted to thousands of dollars.

Carter said he was with Rogers when he made the first of a series of radio broadcasts for an oil company. The comedian, he said, received $50,000 for seven appearances on the air—and of the sum gave $25,000 to the American Red Cross and $25,000 to the Salvaton Army.

"In 1930 alone," the publisher recalled, "he raised over $275,000 for the Red Cross, all of which went for the benefit of humanity, Will paying the expense of the tour, over $12,000 personally.
