R HUGE GIFTS BY ROGERS TOLD

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 22. (AP)— Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth, Tex., publisher and an intimate friend of Will Rogers for 20 years, today revealed that the humorist-actor's gifts to two favorite organizations amounted to thousands of dollars.

Carter said he was with Rogers when he made the first of a series of radio broadcasts for an oil company. The comedian, he said, received $50,000 for seven appearances on the air—and of the sum gave $25,000 to the American Red Cross and $25,000 to the Salvation Army.

"In 1930 alone," the publisher recalled, "he raised over $275,000 for the Red Cross, all of which went for the benefit of humanity, Will paying the expense of the tour, over $12,000, personally."
