Fort Worth, Texas,
August 31, 1935.

VICE-PRESIDENT JOHN N. GARNER
UVALDE, TEXAS.

We now have the Rogers' Memorial Plan worked out on a national basis. Governor Marland's plan, the Claremore delegation, Will Hayes and the Movie Industry have all agreed to join in on one general national plan in which you are to be the chairman and Jesse Jones the treasurer STOP Mr. Lawley, one of Will Rogers' personal friends, attorney and executor of the estate, together with Mrs. Rogers concur fully in this plan. Mr. Lawley and probably Will Hayes will arrive here Wednesday morning. We will then go to Oklahoma City to work out with Governor Marland and the Claremore delegation the details of organization. The program will involve probably one hundred outstanding men all personal friends of Will Rogers. There will be an executive committee of probably fifteen or twenty with you as chairman to allocate and see that the funds raised are judiciously and properly expended covering a suitable memorial in Claremore, Oklahoma and in Los Angeles. In addition we hope to have sufficient funds for a suitable recognition or monument in Washington STOP Could you possibly come to Fort Worth and make the trip with us to Oklahoma City Wednesday morning. We can go on the regular American Airlines plane in one and one-half hours, return to Fort Worth the same night in time for you to catch your train for San Antonio STOP Your personal presence is exceedingly important and will have a far-reaching effect on starting the program out after which time we will do all of your work for you, of course under your supervision STOP It looked for a while as though we might have two or three organizations and I am delighted to know they have been correlated under one national setup. Everybody is pleased with this plan. I realize you are entitled to a good rest but this is very important if you can possibly do it. Best regards to both you and Mrs. Garner
