

My dear dear Ann:
your going to Leicester was the sweetest and most comforting
of all the loving things that was done for him - to me but you could have thought of this and how I love you for it - All these long hours my thoughts were with you, and I feel that he knew

you were there.

I do trust you to know how deeply touched we were and how even we of us appreciate ~~the~~
your warm affection
and sincere friendship for him. We would you, we all do, you
are one of the finest God bless and keep you and yours.

Please come sometime
to see us, its surely here but it seems
I just can't tear
myself away - not yet - maybe later

sometime -

Love

Betty
