

October 23, 1935.

Mr. Roy D. Rogers,
Carthage, Mo.

Dear Mr. Rogers:

On my return to the city, I found your letter of October 9th, as well as of October 15th and a copy of your new song "He'll be There" dedicated to Will Rogers, for which please accept my thanks.

While I am not considered a expert on music, the words are very good and I presume the melody is in keeping. Frankly, I do not know how I could help you place this before the public however I shall turn it over to the manager of our radio department and see if he can do anything for you on the matter.

Enclosed, herewith, is $1.00 for which you may send me five copies of the song and if it is at all possible for me to be of any help to you it shall be a pleasure to do so.

Yours very truly,

AGC.KD