Form 2L

Fort Worth, Texas,
November 1, 1935.

Honorable Jesse H. Jones, Reconstruction Finance Corp.,
1825 H Street, N. W.,
Washington, D.C.

Regret my inability to attend dinner and meeting of Rogers Commission Directors Seventh as I am leaving the ninth for Los Angeles to attend American Petroleum Institute meeting. Please express my profound regrets to the other members STOP Everything in Texas is lined up in fine shape and we have seventy five active chairmen at work STOP Confidentially and not for announcement as yet we are to have a Will Rogers Day at Arlington Downs, full receipts going to the fund STOP The special gifts committee needs your energetic support. Walter Chrysler, Henry Ford, Harry Sinclair and Frank Phillips should take the lead. Walter has made a barrel of money this year STOP What would be a finer thing than a fifty or hundred thousand dollar subscription for Will Rogers? You, Owen D. Young and Will Hays can do the job. I will help in every way possible although the Texas job occupies most of my time. Pep the crowd up. Keep everybody on their toes and we will raise two and one-half million dollars meanwhile what is everybody's business is no one's business. Best regards.

Amon G. Carter.
