

SATURDAY LAST DAY TO MAKE ROGERS GIFTS

Since handicapped and unfortunate children are to be the beneficiaries of the Will Rogers Memorial Fund, the Christmas spirit should prompt many to send in their subscriptions, the headquarters for the movement announced Friday in reporting more contributions.

The movement is scheduled to end Saturday and immediate action by those who have not already subscribed is requested in order that Fort Worth will be assured of leading the State in honoring the humanitarian traits of the late humorist-philosopher.

Hundred per cent subscriptions from six more employe groups were announced. They are: Commercial Standard Life Insurance Company, 85 employes, $50; Y. W. C. A. secretaries, six, $3.75; Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, 170 employes, $87.85; Marvin D.
